

Does your email client open links automatically?

Some email software (Outlook, Windows Mail, etc.) automatically open links in emails which could potentially compromise your device.